Highlights from the chat:

- from Sarah S. to everyone (Jennifer's suggestion): <https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/50623864-the-invisible-life-of-addie-larue>
- from Sarah S. to everyone (Gina's suggestion): <https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/22055262-a-darker-shade-of-magic> I think it follows the general arc ... but it "flips" the approach, kind of like what we were talking about with angels a minute ago. (Ok, at least in the first half!)
- from Sarah S. to everyone: There's actually a room that was part of the Underground Railroad in one of our very old, historic inns in Granville. (Anyone remember the bar in the Buxton? It's down there ...) <http://www.haineshouse.org/haines-house.html>
- from Sarah S. to everyone: <https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/43521657-the-ten-thousand-doors-of-january>
- from Josh S. to everyone: Portal fiction is a story in which an ordinary person is transported to another world, often to discover that they have an important role to play in its destiny. The "portal" generally refers to a technological or magical doorway that connects two distinct locations separated by space time
- from Sarah T. Schaff to everyone: "The Weirdest People in the World," basically a dissection of western thought, written by an anthropologist.
- from Josh S. to everyone: <https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/7801229-the-exiled-queen>
- from JENNIFER to everyone: I'm also an author under the pen name Elizabeth Bell :) My series is The Lazare Family Saga <https://elizabethbellauthor.com/book-series/lazare-family-saga/>
- from Sarah S. to everyone: <https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/47701.InterWorld>
- from Gina M. [she|her] to everyone: I'm in Goodreads as, novelly, Gina Maida.
